West Valley City Kicks Off 30th Annual National Night Out with Food, Entertainment and Fun for the Entire Family

WHAT: National Night Out Kickoff Celebration

WHEN: Monday, August 5, 2013
5:30 – 8:00 p.m., Kickoff Celebration
8:00 p.m., Live Concert: In Cahoots

WHERE: Utah Cultural Celebration Center, 1355 West 3100 South

WHO: Bring the entire family to this FREE evening of fun and entertainment!

WHY: Expanding on the tradition of National Night Out in West Valley City, a kickoff celebration will bring the entire city together for an evening of fun, entertainment and information at the first official event of National Night Out, 2013, in West Valley City.

“For 30 years the residents of West Valley City have participated in National Night Out events in their own neighborhoods,” says Craig Thomas, Assistant Director of Public Relations and Neighborhood Services. “We’re building upon that success with our city-wide kickoff celebration – inviting residents to come together, meet their city leaders, learn about the city’s services and programs and have a good time.”

This year’s kickoff event will feature free food; entertainment by Daniel Park, the New Fiddlers, Salt Lake Capeira and a Philipino Ensemble; bounce houses, face painting and balloon art for kids; informational displays from West Valley City departments and community sponsors; and a West Valley City Police Department K9 Demonstration. Additionally, attendees will have an opportunity to meet with 2013 Primary Election candidates who will be on hand throughout the event. At 8:00 p.m., following the kickoff celebration, the Utah Cultural Celebration Center WorldStage! Concert Series will feature a live performance by In Cahoots: “Tunes and Tales from the Cowboy Trails.”
